

of the next Assembly

An Act for rule of Judicature

Right and just in all civil Causes shall be determined according to the Law or most General usage of the Province since its Plantation or former Presidents of the same or the like nature to be determined by the Judge and in defect of such Law usage or President then right and just shall be determined according to equity and good Conscience not neglecting so far as the Judge or Judges shall be informed thereof and shall find no inconveniency in the application to this Province) the rules by which right and just useth or ought to be determined in England in the same or like Cases and all crimes and offences shall be judged and determined according to the Law of the Province or in defect of certain Law then they may be determined according to the best discretion of the Judge or Judges judging as near as conveniently may be to the laudable law or usage of England in the same or the like offences provided that no Person be adjudged of life member or Freehold

This act to endure till the end of the next Assembly

An Act providing for Officers

The Lord Proprietary or his Lieut General (in his Lordship's absence) may appoint any Person to be Constable of the Peace or Commander or Commy of any County wherein he is ordinarily resident living his abode in that County or to execute or