

(1751)
making such Proof as the Judge shall think sufficient any the residue if there be any shall be delivered to the Party or Parties living within the Province or next right to succeed and in defect of such shall be used to the use of the said Proprietary and the Goods of such Person shall be disposed of as in Case of In-testate's

This act to endure till the end of the next Assembly In Act for the forms of Proceeding in Causes

Every Judge and Court authorized or allowed by the Lord Proprietor or the Law of the Province shall or may have and use all necessary and sufficient Power for the administration of Justice and doing or causing right to be done to all persons and approving the forms and means of it and awarding all necessary process to that end in such form and unto such Effects and under such reasonable penalties as the Judge or Court shall think fit. Guiding themselves as near as conveniently may to the former Precedents and usages of the Court and in defect thereof to the forms of England in the same or the like cases except where any thing is specially provided for by the Law of the Province

This act to Endure till the end of the next Assembly