

recovering and authorising his discharge and if the debt be not due at the time the Creditor may have an Injunction to stop them in his hands till further Order from the Party or the Court and it may be Enquired of any Party by his Oath what he owes to the Party recovered upon and the Party recovering may be admitted to sue any bill or debt in the name of the Party recovered upon & if the Party recovering refuse to take any Bill or debt as aforesaid in payment the Sheriff shall cause the same to be appraised or sold in like manner as is appointed for other Goods

The Party to whose use such bills or debts shall be by such sale or purchase applied shall be admitted in any Court to all the same right and to all the same effects and Constructions as the party him or herself to whom the Bill or debt was due and if there be not sufficient distress of Lands debts nor goods as aforesaid the Body of the party in execution shall be brought before the Judge there to be Ordered as Justice shall require and if such Party had lived at any time before in the quality of a servant labourer artificer or other labouring art or profession whatsoever the Judge may appoint him to some corporall labour or employment most fitting for him during such time as he shall think fit and by judgment bind or apply the whole future benefit or proceed of it to the Satisfaction of the Party Binding the Party or Parties recovering to such competent maintenance to be allowed for necessities to be found him his wife and Children during that time.