

if any be as the Court shall think fit to be put to the acc^t of the Party in execution.

And if such Party appointed to any labour or Employment as a servant refuse or neglect it the Judge upon Complaint may adjudge him to be punished as a disobedient servant.

And if such party in execution be not fit in the Judges discretion to be put to any other Punishment he may commit him to strict Custody there to be maintained by the Creditor or Creditors in such proportion and with such allowance of necessaries during that time as the Judge shall think fit to be put likewise to the acc^t of the Party in execution. And if the Sheriff after there is a Prison built suffer such party in Execution to go at Liberty out of the Prison without Consent of the chief Creditor he shall be liable as in Case of Escape.

This Act to endure till the end of the next Assembly

An Act touching executing
 Enacted the 7th
 August 1642
 upon Corn or Tobacco

No attachment, Sequestration, execution or other process may be laid in Tobacco before it be struck in cash nor upon any Corn before it be in the house but after any Judgment entered against any Person all the Corn and Tobacco of such Party shall stand & be Obliged and bound to the use of that judgment so that it may not after that time be validly disposed