

and Subsidies to the use of the Lord Proprietary (granted by Assembly and judgments upon suit of the Lord Proprietary for his own mere and proper debts and judgments for fees of necessary publick Officers) published by the Lieut General and Council in a table for that purpose bearing date with this act shall be first satisfied

And further provided that no Party to whom any Corn or Tobacco stands bound by Judgment as aforesaid shall incur the pain of trespass afore Ordainment unless such party were witting to or admitted of the precedent judgment of the Party grieved

And further provided that no such Judgment as aforesaid be extended to the invalidating of any Recognizance Mortgage or like contract (heretofore or before the publishing hereof in the County) made bona fide for security and entered upon record afore the publishing hereof in the County (if the Party interested in such Mortgage be within the Province before the said Court day) or afore the next Court day after such Parties coming into the Province or (if such Party be not in these Parts of America) afore the next Court day after Christmas come twelve months and that no such Recognizances Mortgages or contracts for security to be made after the publishing hereof in the County where they shall be made be valid to stop or suspend the use and effect of a Judgment of aforesaid unless such only as shall be extant upon record at or afore the time of such Judgment Given