

|                     |                        |
|---------------------|------------------------|
| 1 Thomas Willis     | Joseph Biskett         |
| 1 Henry James       | 1 John Pullman         |
| 1 Thomas Allen      | 1 James Caubier        |
| 1 Thomas White      | 1 Anthony Rawlin       |
| 1 Thomas Sterman    | 1 John Langford        |
| 1 John Puce         | 1 William Bronne       |
| 1 Thomas Penell     | 1 John Marlborough     |
| 1 Arthur le May     | 1 Francis Pope         |
| 1 Thomas Hamore     | Tr <sup>o</sup> Nevill |
| 1 John Robinson Car | 1 Hurgut Baker         |
| 1 Edward Hall       | W <sup>o</sup> Gerard  |
| 1 William Cook      | 1 Joseph Cardell Coep  |
| Robert Edwards      | 1 John Hatch           |
| 1 Edward Symson     | 1 John Worthy          |
| 1 John Mansell      | 1 Richard Nevill       |

W<sup>o</sup> Thomas Weston being called pleaded he was no freeman because he had no land nor certain dwelling here &c<sup>o</sup> but being put to the question it was voted that he was a freeman and as such bound to his appearance by himself or prozie whereupon he took place in the house

Then W<sup>o</sup> Secretary administered to the said Gen<sup>l</sup> a Corporal Oath upon the holy Bible in these words
 [ You shall swear that you will be true and faithful to the right honorable Cecilius Lord and Proprietor of this Province of Maryland and that you will defend and maintain to the utmost of your Power all his rights Interest and Royal Jurisdictions and Signory in to & over the said Province and the Islands thereunto belonging according to his Lordships charter of the