

3 None are to speak above once in one day touching several matters or clause of any bill without leave of the house, if two or more rise together the Speaker General is to determine who shall speak first.

4 None are to use any indecent taunting or reviling words, to the naming or personating of any member, in the house or any other must behave himself in his speech upon pain of censure by the house.

5 Every bill is to be read twice before it be engaged, & after Engagement to be put to the vote at a third reading.

Then was the Governor Captain Comwallers Mr Brent Mr Secretary, Mr Surveyor, Mr Weston & Mr Greene appointed for a committee to meet in the afternoon at the second Beating of the drum, at two of the Clock for the drawing up of a Bill touching a matter to be made upon the Indians and other matters pertaining to the safety of the Colony.

It was then ordered, that a new summons by special messengers, should be sent to the freemen of St Marys and Saint Georges hundreds, to appear by themselves, or Proxies, on Wednesday next, upon pain of 50^l to be forfeited by every one making default; thereunto, to the freemen of Saint Michaels and Saint Clements hundred to appear on Friday next on like pain.

Then Mr Brent moved as from the Inhabitants of Kent, that it might be declared by the house, whether the Inhabitants may freely without leave depart out of the Province being engaged or obnoxious to Justice.