

before the Court break up all issues joined or petitions entered before the said several Court days respectively (within the Cognisance of the Court) shall be heard & Ordered upon the request of either Party and no Court may be held for the determination of any Cause requiring the presence of more Judges until all such as have voice in the Court (and are within the Court or hundred conveniently to be warned) have warning and Notice thereof some reasonable time before this act to Endure for three years from this present day

6. An Act providing Remedy for Plaintiffs in some Cases

The Defendant returned served and defaulting in appearance the Judge may admit the Plaintiff to prove his demand if he see Cause may proceed to Judgment and any writt shall be judged sufficiently served if it were shown declared or tendered to the party or left at his usual plantation and Affidavit made by any one that the party had certain knowledge of it

And in case where the Defendant is not an inhabitant of the Provincial Court out of it the Judge shall Give reasonable time for his answer according to the Case and in default of answer may admit the Plaintiff to prove his demand and proceed to judgment if he or they see Cause

Where any Party is presented or indicted by twelve Freeman to be a fugitive such Fugitives Lands and goods may be attached or delivered in execution to the