

Creditors making such Proof as the Judge shall think sufficient and the Residue if any be shall be delivered to the Party or Parties living within the Province having next right to succeed and the Goods of such Fugitives shall be disposed of by Administration as if the Party had died intestate this Act to endure for three years from this present day

An Act for the forms of Proceed in Causes

The Chief Judge in Commission of every Court shall or may have and use all necessary and sufficient Power for the Administration of Justice and doing or Causing right to be done to all Persons (in all Causes within Cognizance of the Court) and appointing the forms and means of it and awarding all necessary Procefs to that end in such form and to such effects as the Judge shall think fit Guiding themselves as near as conveniently they may to the former Presidents and usages of the Court and in defect thereof to the forms of England in the same or the like Cases except where any thing is specially Provided for by the Law of the Province this Act to endure for three years from this present Assembly

8 An Act Ordering some things Touching the Trial and Judging of Causes