

Delivered hand till further Order from the Party or the Court and it may be enquired of any Party by his oath what he oweth to the Party recovered upon

And the Party recovering may be permitted to sue any Bill or debt in name of the Party recovered upon

And if the Party recovering refuse to take any Bill or debt as aforesaid in payment the Officer shall Cause the same to be appraised or sold in like manner as is appointed for other Goods and the Party to whose use such Bills or debts shall be by such sale or Purchase applied shall be admitted in any Court to all the same right and to all the same effects and Constructions as the Party him or herself to whom the Bill or debt was due

And if there be not distress sufficient of Lands Goods nor debts as aforesaid the Body of the Person in Execution shall be brought before the Judge there to be Ordered as Justice shall require and if such Party had lived at any time afore in the quality of a Servant Labourer Artificer or other labourer art or Profession whatsoever the Judge may appoint him to some corporal labour art or employment most fitting for him and by judgment bind or apply the whole future benefit or proceed of it to the use of the Execution until it be satisfied binding the Party or Parties recovering to such competent maintenance to be allowed for necessaries to be found him his wife and Children during that time if any be