

as the Court shall think fit to be put to the account of the party in execution and if such Party appointed to any Labour or Employment as aforesaid refuse or neglect in the Judge's upon Complaint may adjudge them to be punished as a disobedient Servant.

And if such Party in execution be not fit in the Judge's discretion to be put to corporal Labour he may Commit him to strict Custody there to be maintained by the Gaoler or Bailiffs in such Proportion and with such allowance of necessaries during that time as the Judge shall think fit to be put likewise to the account of the Party in execution.

And if the Sheriff (after three or four Prison breaks) suffer such Party in Execution to go at liberty out of the Prison without consent of the chiefest Creditor he shall be liable in case of escape this act to endure for three years from this present day.

11 An Act touching Causes Testamentary

The last disposition of the deceased (naming an Executor) made either by words or writing touching his or her lands or Goods or any other matter appear by Oath of two witnesses shall be judged the last will and Testament of the deceased and the Executor shall have the Probate of the will under Seal.

If no Executor be named or the Executor be not willing or able to undertake it or not in these Parts the Administration with the will annexed shall be committed to the Overseers if any be named in the will.