

revised this Act to endure for three years from this present Day

13

An Act touching succession to Goods of intestate Persons

The Widow shall succeed to the Goods and Chattels of the deceased intestate if there be no Child and if there be but one child the widow shall succeed to the one half and the Child to the other half and if there be more than One child the Widow shall succeed to one third and the residue shall be divided among the Children by equal shares if there be no widow the child or children by equal shares shall succeed to the whole if neither widow nor child the nearest of kin the nearest of the Province that may be heir to the deceased shall succeed to the whole

If any Party known to have right to succeed in whole or in Part be out of the Province or be Orphan the Administrator shall bring the residue belonging to such foreigner or orphan into the Provincial Court there to be disposed of to such Parties use as the Judge shall think fit this act to endure for three years from this present day

14

An Act touching Assignments

Where two Parties are indebted to one another upon account the one of them may not assign away his interest in the account without the Consent of the other unless it be of that which is due from the