

against the Lord Proprietary or in his absence by the Lt Gen^l or of rising in arms or mutiny against the Lord Proprietary (or in his absence) against his Lieutenant General or of being accessory to any the Offences aforesaid shall be punished by pains of death and forfeiture of all the Offenders lands goods & Chattels to the Lord Proprietary this act to endure for three years from this present day

16 An Act for the punishment of Certain less Capital Offences

These following shall be adjudged capital Offences within this Province that is to say all Offences of Homicide Piracy Robbery Burglary Sacrilege Sodomy Sorcery rape and larceny to be determined by the Judge as near as may be to the Laws of England Likewise Offences of wilful Burning or destroying a house or stack of Tobacco Corn or hay of another mans or of cutting or plucking out wilfully anothers eyes or tongue

And the Offendor (whether principal or accessory afore the Offence committed) in any of these shall or may be judged to suffer pains of death or of burning in the hand or loss of member and to lose all his or her lands for life goods or chattels dignity or office or may be Outlawed or caited imprisoned during life or adjudged to serve the Lord Proprietary and his assigns for the time of seven or less years (except he be a Gentleman or may be any otherwise Corporally corrected