

This act to endure for three years from this present day

22 In Act touching Passes

No Man after the publishing hereof in the County without Consent of the chief Judge of the County in Commission for the time being transport any inhabitant out of the Province that is obnoxious to justice for some malefice nor without Consent of the Particular Parties interested) may transport any one against whom there is action or judgment (unsatisfied) upon record or that is another mans servant or the parties own servant and liable as afore (except it be an apprentice) upon pain of making recompence to all Parties grieved this Act to endure for three years from this present day

23 In Act touching Attachments and executions upon Corn or Tobacco

An Attachment or Execution shall be judged sufficiently served upon corn afore it be husked or Tobacco afore it be struck in cash if the Officer appointed by the writt take an eare or stalk of the Corn or a plant or Leaf of the Tobacco in his hand saying (in the presence of the owner or one or two neighbours) these words or to this Effect thereafter as the writt is vis<sup>d</sup> [ I do hereby attach [or seise] all the Corn [or Tobacco] of N (naming the Party) in this field [or house] to the use of this writt ] and read or when the Writ and declare the Effect of it.