

the Lieutenant General and Council if it be in the County of Saint Mary and the Command and Commission of Kent if it be in that County shall have Power to Rectify the Quittance according to equity & the true intent of this Act

And if any thing be remaining in stock after the expedition finished it shall be returned to the Counties proportionably and from the Counties proportionably to every hundred and from the hundred to particular persons proportionably to their charge

And all Requisites and benefits arising growing or acquired from any enemies prosecuted by this expedition by any treaty present or composition for peace or satisfaction for injuries done shall be to the use & Account of the Town and upon demand for the Provincial Court of any person in the name & behalf of the Province of any Party or Parties possessed of such requisites or benefits such Party or Parties so possessed shall be liable to account and restitution and the requisites so acquired shall be distributed proportionably to the Counties and from each County to every hundred and from thence to particular Persons according to the Proportion of their charge to the expedition until the said charge be fully satisfied and recompensed

25 An Act providing some things for the better Safety of the Colony

Whensoever the necessary Defence of the Town or any Part thereof against an Assault or invasion of the