

At St Ingo's Fort 29th December 1646

In the upper house

Governor W. Linger Mr Greaves

The Burgesses being sent for and all appearing the Governour declares to them that they were called hither as freemen to treat and advise in Assembly touching all matters as freely and boldly without any care or fear and with the same Liberty as at any Assembly they might have done heretofore and that they were now free from all restraint of their persons and should be free during the Assembly saving only to himself after the end of the Assembly by such Charge as he had or hath against any for any Crime Committed since the last General Pardon

- Sworn William Lewis
- Jo. Tarbo
- Robt Sharpe
- John Saller
- William Clarke
- Thomas Kingwell

Testified that the Governour before their coming up out of Virginia declared to all the Soldiers in publick and to these Deponents in particular in these words out to this effect that they were to attend him upon these terms viz that if he found the Inhabitants of Saint Marys had accepted his pardon for their former Rebellion and were in Obedience to his Lordship the Soldiers were to expect no Pillage there but he would receive the Inhabitants in Peace and only take aid from them to the reducement of Kentz dec^r 30th the house adjourn'd till next morning 31st the house adjourn'd till Jan^r 2nd morn^g The house adjourn'd till 1st March