John Hill / House 11 Books

Edmund Cotton / House 1 Bar. Such as 9

William Bicker 1

The house adjourned by the Governor till tomorrow 9 Clock to hear Petitions of the Country

Saturday 29 January

The premises all assembled

Nicholas Gryther petitioned to the house for his freedom which Mr Fenwick Attorney of Captain Cornwallys denied to him

Upon the petition of Nicholas Gryther the house considered that they found no service due to Mr Fenwick from the said Nicholas Gryther but that the Product of his labour over and above his necessary maintenance / after the war was done should be coming to Mr Fenwick the said Nicholas Gryther to bring in upon oath a just account into the house between this and Monday morning to the time that his service expired

Thomas Oliver petitioned to the house that either Mr Fenwick Attorney of Captain Cornwallys perform the Contract which the said Thomas made with the said Captain Cornwallys or else to be at his own disposal

Upon the petition aforesaid the said Mr Fenwick not being able to perform the Contract according to Condition
The house ordered that the Petitioner should be at his own disposal,
