

Be it enacted by the Lord Proprietary with the Advice and Assent of this Assembly that whosoever shall steal wrongfully kill or carry away any marked swine of another mans shall pay double the value of such swine to the true owner thereof and 200^{to} more Tobacco to him that shall inform thereof and 300^{to} more for a fine to the Lord Proprietary to be paid out of every such Offenders Estate or Goods and in case any one offending therein shall not be found able to satisfy for such Offence as aforesaid such Person shall be censured and punished as the Governor and Council then present in Court or other Judge in Court shall think fit and whosoever shall know of any such Hog or Hogs stolen and shall not reveal the same forthwith to the Constable of the hundred where he is Residing shall be Censured and fined as the chief Offender aforesaid and any one that shall kill any unmarked Hogs of above three months old except upon his own land in any Part of his Lordships Forest without special License from the Governor shall pay 100^{to} of Tobacco to him that shall inform and make Proof thereof over and above 200^{to} Tobacco for a fine to the Lord Proprietary for every such Hog to be recovered as aforesaid and all the Inhabitants of this Province are required by Virtue of this act to bring in their several marks of Hogs and other Cattle and cause them to be recorded before Michaelmas next upon Perill of such Censure as the Governor & Council then present or other Judge shall think fit

The freemen have assented Tho^s Hallon
Enacted by the Governor W^m Stone