

in the second Clause thereof for recovery upon dead mens Estates was that the Creditors upon such Estate shall make no Recovery / above nine months standing except upon Bill or other Instrument under hand writing and do believe that the intention of the whole house was such and no other

John Price                      George Mannes
Robt Vaughan                William Bretton
Cuthbert Fenwick, John Hatch

th 29 April Predict It is therefore thought fit by both Houses of this present Assembly that that Clause in the Act above mentioned be understood and judged upon according to the intentions Expressed in the Certificate above written
Assented ut Supra
Concurred ut Supra

th April 29 1650

We whose Names are hereunder Written do declare that our intent in passing the Bill the last Year intituled an act for the support of the Lord Proprietary / and do verily Believe that the intention of the whole House then was that those words in the Law viz Touching the lute Recovery and defence of the Province is only meant thereby that those Soldiers who came up in Person with Governor Calvert Decd out of Virginia and those other who were hired into the Fort of St Inegos for the defence and preservation of the Province and Government reassumed by him and other Just causes incurred during the said time in that Fort should be satisfied by virtue of that act and no others

William Stone                John Hull
Thomas Greene                Thomas Hallon
John Price                      Robert Vaughan