

Servants age and shall have remedy according to the
as to aforesaid mentioned

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid that no indenture made by any servant during the time of service due by himself or by his heir or assigns shall be void or in any way annulled or voided by any law or statute made in this behalf touching the same Provided that this Act nor any thing therein contained shall not be construed to give any benefit to any Slave what so ever this Act to endure for three years or to the end of the next General Assembly

The Lower House have Assented Will Breton Clerk

The Upper House have Assented
John Gittings Clerk

An Act for the appointment of Justices of the Peace

Be it enacted by the Lord Proprietary of this Province by and with the consent of the Governor and Lower House of this present General Assembly, that the Justices of the Peace in every County, at the first County Court to hold after Michaelmas the next ensuing and appoints some Inhabitants in every hundred or Constabulary not being of the Council or by his or her Employment or otherwise provided to be Constables, that the hundred or Constabulary who shall execute all processes and Warrants to him directed shall in all things the like powers within the said hundred or Constabulary any Constable hath or ought to have in a Constabulary England by the Law or Custom of England the said Constables shall take oaths in manner and form following

You shall swear that you shall well and truly serve his Majesty in the office of Constable you shall see and take that his Majesty's peace be well and duly kept according to your power you shall arrest all felons as in your power shall be committed or made any offence or other Breach of his Majesty's peace you shall do your best endeavor upon Complaint to go in aid to apprehend and all felons Barretors Racketers or persons riotously Assembled And if any such offender shall make any forceful Resistance with force you shall to any hue and