

the good and liberty of the said habit unto here
 And all the Answers they then had to this their request was that they had and should enjoy liberty of speech as being first borne in the said of England according to Magna Charta.

Now their humble request is that if it shall soe happen that any Member transgress in this kind and abusing the liberty such Member shall be only punishable in the house of Assembly where such offence is committed and not constrained to answer for such offence at any Court whatsoever

By order of the house

William Braddon CR

All which was granted by the Upper house

The house is adjourned till morn of the 4th in the morning.

Thursday the 3<sup>d</sup> April

It was All as before

Then the Lower house returned the Seditious pam-phlet sent by the Upper house to them together with the Vote of the house Entered on the back side.

Assented by the lower house

William Braddon

And further informed this house that a number of that house by name Robert Burle did acknowledge that that paper would reflect upon him and that therefore the Lower house did desire that that number might be suspended from voting as a Member till he had purged himself.

Unanimously voted by the Upper house that that person vizt Robert Burle should be suspended from sitting till he had purged himself and that this Vote be sent to the said Burle.

Then came two Members of the lower house and said that the lower house desired that Robert Burle might be forthwith tried.

And that a conference be desired immediately
