

wherein the Plaintiff without due being heard or any other manner in his behalf. Committed to custody upon Record with Fraud and Deceit, which he abhorres, And is in his Conscience obliged to present himself at that time as is with known and known by servants by magistrates And he had need of good use as a servant to increase in charge but only in charity to the Plaintiff's father who in 3 years time was obliged any such promise as he now suggests of the Plaintiff nor at his last being in Maryland over compliance to him of his employment, or keeping which was not offered for as one of his ordinary Magistrates as doubtless he would have done had he been truly in the state or allegation made in his absence to his honor. ^{the} Court. In whom an parliament or Chancery by the laws. Customs and usage of England and this Province it belongs to relieve the injured agt. Surrptitious judgments, nothing being more common in this nation than reversing of judgments upon writs of Error in the equity or legality of the proceedings which being evident in the facts worded he humbly prays it may be granted of the office of the Plaintiff's Counsel, whereby you may have his Reputation vindicated, the Plaintiff or satisfaction for his time restored to the Court. The abused writs and appointments of the Province righted, by all which if the Plaintiff or any other person finds himself aggrieved the Plaintiff is ready to answer any Bill that she be exhibited legally agt. him, Provided he have notice of sufficient time given him for it And will put in sufficient security to stand to the Judgment of His Honor the Court, for all damages that shall be adjudged agt. him. Provided the Plaintiff may do the same whereby he may know how to get satisfaction for unjust molestacion and Slaverie, as the Court shall award And he shall pray