

Spaniards who assured that they were employed by Capt. Thomas Shackett, to pursue the Murders that they had pursued them towards Buse river and found them by their footings to be five in number and that at a place where they had left their kiss of a tree they had found the like stuff which made only 3 Poles Baggo. and not more.

That the Murder cannot be hid and if I dare find it hereafter they will be all that he do so desire that the English would not think of the Murder was committed by them who depend upon the English for their Security

That the War was not begun by them but by the Cruelty of the Indians often sought peace what surely as a vast Experience of the of Peace and had their Ambassadors killed by them, as they did carry it.

That there was a report that had a ready of the English with Quasooquo Indian which two Indians with the assistance of the English he ambly not intended.

That he would not now as benign as present but that their Enmity in all efforts was but 1400 sixty and.

That the Gasques and Nanough are about 700 fighting men
