

with his own hands down, that he would let his oath be split, that he did bring into Court with him now but a horse and Regard in Bridewell some from the way at of some the shipping post: then paying to the Shiner he said and then with the Impudent, where of them all this further he said that her oath was false and malicious in under our Question but he gave her perjured and gave her many other writing speaks

Sworn in Court before and Wm. Borton Clerk
The mark of Peter
Willo

Downy Dwyer aged 26 years or thereabouts openly that in all open Court held at London the 16th day of June 1662 he heard John Barber call them a whore and wife where he said he took her with her and son. Dwyer bit and down upon wife's back he said they were naughty being demanded whether he would he answered he would take his oath upon it if said it was very true for he immediately was down for it there was none but the horse and Dwyer that he brought into just as were brought out of Bridewell and Dwyer, who of she was the most impudent lest further say he not.

Sworn by and in
Wm. Borton Clerk
Downy Dwyer

German Gillett swore to the said wit Downy Dwyer at supper and further of Barber said that she with Dwyer's wife was not only a whore but that he would prob and may lay her a whore.

Sworn in Court by
and Wm. Borton Clerk
The mark A of German Gillett