

The Court as also in Juror Mr. Dwin offered by the Court all least for or fear who hath declared to me they can if need be declare upon oath they be present at the same time that they heard just thing or in that form as most of the my Adversary hath proved ag. me ma monion of his having procured force on the persons of all which had as if from pro perfect prejudice ag any person except his: whose oath is nothing but a spee or invention ag. me as the other are na tural and virtuous all he hath that the Spirit cannot give the like oath of any person as either of the other three hath but all over the Province the men being of such slender Repute in Comparison of the party present whose oath if need be I can prove who only testify of my taking her of her whorish or lascivious Carriage while she was my servant in particular with the King the which is most true upon which I for warning her of this follows: Compa she impudently advised him in my house when my wife and I was gone to the Lodging him in my wife's bed & lying alone in the Room with him as any person would at any yet knowe which she did not do when I gave her Commission for it before Mr.
 Reynolds taking her at the very time I ga ve Commission for her: her whorish Carriage to which she answered not a word.

ordered that Judgment and determination in this Cause be writt. & hit to move more George Dymke p<sup>r</sup> The p<sup>r</sup>te p<sup>r</sup>sent of the day the Doctor Luke Barbours answer her to this Car ag. the p<sup>r</sup>te being read over the p<sup>r</sup>te & the more her to be and being absent by her Attorney