

as he is a Member of the lower house desired the Governor from the whole lower house not to discharge Edward Erbery Member of the lower house for he had something to object against him as well for abusing the lower house of assembly as his long stay left any part when some a Member from the lower house with this paper following

Sunday 1. May 1666

Mr Robert Erbery that we heard there was an abuse committed last night by Edward Erbery to the disturbance of the whole house in their quietness the other of his house in former times Erbery did call the whole house Rogues Rogues, sturdy rogues, or what the speaker is desired to take notice of a proposed by the gentleman or otherwise as to him shall seeme best that it be the first thing his house take into their consideration or debate Mr Nicholas Pinder informed that he called the whole house a sturdy rotten assembly Mr Richard Blunt informed that Erbery said we are a company of sturdy fellows the lower house were ashamed of the phrase from whence we came Mr Richard Hall says that amongst a great many of better words Erbery said that Charles Calvert was a Rogue Mr Calvert says how that Erbery in his hearing says were with the assembly were a company of spitefull Rogues, & puppies there is not one in the Country deserves to keepe our company but Charles Calvert who owes our ten thousand pound of tobacco Mr Rich Smith informed that his morning when Erbery was called by Erbery complained that he was bound that he remembred all he had said last night that he was not drunk And in a threatening manner said he would remember how that bound him the abuse that Edward Erbery gave to the
