

Ms. B. 6. 6. April 10-May 1. Lower House Journal Original State Papers.

8. The speaker is undertaken for the
to Patent. & for all of rest of the business as respects to justice.

9. Let us have one quarter then for the cross edit of the
If an Indian be in England
But let us be honest
by which we
as no longer
are behind.

Printed in the included.

10. The speaker is undertaken for the
to Patent. & for all of rest of the business as respects to justice.
11. Let us have one quarter
then for the cross edit of the
If an Indian be in England
But let us be honest
by which we
as no longer
are behind.

Heads of Chotiques speech.

1. Let all idle followers of every party on both sides be bound & delivered on both sides. If they cannot prove their allegiance, to be punished.

2. As they were of English friends for Governor of India as per bottom, without cause, when they come amongst the English. And let their privilege of hunting, fishing, & trabbing be preserved.

3. They desire to have liberty to send in their children children amongst us at ease & danger. And that the English will furnish them with arms & ammunition, & they will endeavour to defend both them & us against the Spaniards. And rather for the Governor's side be pleased to see of plain, whether