

(To be kept in a room)
 The House was kept open off of Committee for a fortnight being read, concerning the matter is agreed by the Clerk.
 Thomas Brooke the messenger to the King is returned. And as the speaker concerning that before the House of Commons
 the House of Commons
 the House of Commons

The speaker motions the House, whether they judge it necessary for them, both as to home & place.
 That of Governor & Council be empowered for a space of two years, for a supply of men, Ammunition, Victuals, & other necessary accommodation for those men soe required, if occasion shall require, not only for a making of a War, but also for a concluding of a Peace, wth our neighbouring Indians, or other vaine Indians. Yes or no. And what

In affirmative necessary.

Then Mr. Speaker requested Mr. Nicholas, to goe, to the Upper House. That this House be ready to attend them And thereupon the Upper House came into this House & Resolved both Houses into a Grand Committee where the Chanceler delivers certaine Reasons concern ing the Indians, as to a settling a Peace wth them & Confirmation of certaine Articles to that end.

And it was Resolved by that Grand Committee That