

Upper chamber, which was, but only by this bill proposed to the Upper House for the House of Commons. ... in direct, for that this bill whole thereof. ...
 of some to the Upper House of Upper House to remain that Act concerning, ... of the Clerk of the House, ...
 of both parts to ...
 of Upper House

Wednesday 25 June 1666. & Clerk.

The House called at 10 o'clock on Mr. Bil. ... for the three members of the Committee.

According to order yesterday (the Upper House being then dissolved) Sir Thomas Brooke of messenger then appointed, ... to present those two Acts passed this House, to the Upper House.

The messenger returns, & certifies the Speaker of the Upper House that the Acts passed this Assembly must be written, & requires a Clerk to do the same.

Ordered by the messenger returned again, & request of the House, to provide a Clerk to transcribe them.

The messenger returns & certifies the Speaker of the House to take care for transcribing or engraving those Acts agreed on.

The Committee brought down Two Bills. (viz) An Act providing for the ... & all such as shall entertain them.