The Committee of Accounts of the House introduced An Act for the Publication of all Laws in this Province. This House upon some Consideration thereof had. m^o / spe-ker ordered m^o. Will^m. Courty to goe to the Upper House, to request that Bill be remanded hither, to alter something therin, as by Termination.

Who returns, he brought downe the Act as first. And according to the Vote of the whole House those last words for the Termination were waded out; And then he stood as it is in Termination.

The same Messenger further certifies of Speaker, That of Chancery also ^{much} fees, he shall not have purchase enough to comply wth that Act. But sayth That the Lawes shall be faithfully written in a Booke bound up in parchment for the present. And as to the future, he will provide according as is prescribed.

And the whole House rests satisfied therewith.

Then put to the Vote whether of Chancery, Deserves to be considered for his great industry, care, service, & Continuall
