18 Feb: 1674:

The house
A Request of the house desiring longer time for the each of the 3 Quarters, by reason of the winter

Voted that whosoever for all of the Quarters have not found their quartermen or prisoners that they have a year's time more given them and that the Quarters draw up a case for that purpose The words and the parties sent with the Quarters to the Colonies that they return

The words from the Quarters with a bill entitled An Act for relief of prisoners who in consequence are no longer to be served in case of emergency

The said bill read, and examined in Court from the An Act for Regular sent to the upper house by A Member of this house but the motion any more

Voted nevertheless that the Quarters inspect the laws for Quarters and draw up an act and send it to the Colonies
