

My dear brother
I received your letter of the 11th and was glad to hear from you and to hear that you were well and happy.

I am well and hope
these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present.
I have been thinking much
of late of the state of the world and of the condition of the people.

The answer of Sir Thomas interrogatories put to him by the court.

This day Sir Thomas
being sworn, answered
the interrogatories
put to him by the
court as follows.
That he had been
employed in the service of the King for many years past and
that he had been employed in the service of the King for many years past.

I have been thinking much
the world and of the condition of the people.
