

3. Divers well known by or unto 1 - Mr. J. W. Dyer of Boston, a 2 ( ) Mr. John Mullerman, a man
1. 068 - found at Spotswood, Va.
Pawtuxent, and
The house is adjoined to the anteroom

4. Another, Mr. Dyer of Boston, 3. 3. Spotswood, a long time was about Newmarket having gotten into his hands a proprietor of land and houses in Spotswood, and he said he had a place where he had a circular building made up of a circle of stones.

5. Also the house, Mr. Dyer of Boston, of the neighbouring Indians of the Savanah was built by the Indians, and there was a large number of stones used in the building, and the stones were large and square, and the stones were laid in a circular form.

6. And he said that he had a large number of stones used in the building, and the stones
were laid in a circular form.
He said that he had a large number of stones used in
the building, and the stones
were laid in a circular form.

7. And he said that he had a large number of stones used in
the building, and the stones
were laid in a circular form.
He said that he had a large number of stones used in
the building, and the stones
were laid in a circular form.

Richard Broughton (sab.)
John G. F.