

1677
The 10th of June 1677

John Norton
Secretary
Thomas Norton

Forasmuch as the list of the laws at this time being in the House the last of the laws which have Law in the House of Commons and the House of Lords shall be taken down in October 1677 for his Majesty's service from England

His Majesty's Majesty's Majesty's upon the 10th of June according to the Commission did give him an allowance of 30 shillings per day And His Majesty's Majesty's Majesty's think it reasonable for what is past and they will continue the said allowance the next fall during which time and the upper house be a necessity for his Majesty's Majesty's Rangers