if an acre of lands be reserved to each of the said houses and that his Lop: and upper house would Condescend that an act may be drawn up to settle it accordingly. Signed Ye:

This house doe desire the Lower house to send up what Temporary Laws they have received if any alteration be made to any of the said laws, this house may have time duly to Consider of ^{the} same.

This house Concurr with the Lower house in the above vote touching the State house and prison

The Committee by tomorrow Noon will present to both houses what bills are fitt to be received or amended. Signed Ye.

Voted that the publick beare the Necessary Charges to the partic-particular Counties in regard that there is two Delegates out of each County and some Counties have treble the number of Taxables as others. Signed Ye.

This house will Concurr with the Lower house in the vote for defraying of Charges of the assembly provided if every Burgess and Delegate of the Lower house be allowed one hundred and fifty pounds of Tobacco of them during of Assembly and no more, and that every member of the upper house be allowed 200^l of Tobacco and no more.

This house never did intend to stint the Expenses of the upper house, but if what they spent should be payd by the publique, and if an allowance of 10^l day to a member of either house will be a great dissatisfaction to the good people of this province - the house conceiving that they will suppose a Delegate to be a gainer by his trouble - Therefore this house doe desire the upper house further to Consider of this houses former vote and to Concurr with this house in the same. Signed Ye.

The house is Adjourned till 10 a clock to Morrow Morning.
On Saturday June 10th, The house met.

Present the Rt Honble the Lord Proprietary, the honorable Chancell^r Secretary and Surgeon Gen^l Col^l Sam^l Chew, Col^l Jesse Wharton Lieut Col^l Thomas Tailor.

A member of this house proposeth that whereas the Rt Hon^{ble} the Lord Proprietary hath lived long amongst us and from time to time, and done us many particular and special favours, whilst only his Father Leut^l Gen^l of this province and since his death he being Lord Proprietary of this province, now his Corp^s hath continued his wanted favours and kindness to us and in this very assembly by many gracious Condescensions hath evidenced the continuance of his favours to us, since that his Lop^s most important affaires now speedily calls him for England yet his Lordship hath been pleased to declare his speedy intentions of
