

present Deposition, and if soe that they would be pleased to transmit y^e particulars to the said Impeachment to this House, and appoint a Day when this House shall attend their Honor^s by some Members of this House to manage and prosecute y^e said Impeachment ag^t y^e s^r Jacob Young.

Capt. Rich^d Hill and Mr^s Green sent with the Message.

They returned and say they have delivered the same.

Lower House of Assembly October 6th 1683.

This House desires the Upper House to give Instructions to the Members of this House appointed for a Committee to consist of bringing in of Money into this Province, for the drawing up a bill for that purpose, this House having given the like Instructions to their Members which are to join with them.

Signed by Orders,

A. Boteler Clk^t of y^e Lower House &c.

Mr^s Hall and Mr^s Hejice sent to the Upper House with the Message.

They returned and say they have delivered the same.

The Committee for the Advancement of Trade, present to this House a bill entitled an act For the Advancement of Trade, which was read the first time.

Then came Coll^o Storer from the Upper House with y^e following Mess^g:

By the Upper House October 6th 1683.

As much as this House had received from y^e Lower House by Capt Hill and Mr^s Green, this House doe say that they conceive that the Impeachment of said Young is now upon issue, and have thereupon voted that the said Jacob Young doe appear before this House on Monday next, and doe desire that y^e Members of the Lower House appointed, or to be appointed to prosecute the said Impeachment, will be ready for that purpose, before this House on Monday next being the Eighth day of this present October, and herewith sent y^e Journall of the Committee last appearing for y^e Impeachment of the said Young, y^e Articles and Indictures now in y^e hands of the Attorney Generall.

Signed by Orders,

Tho^s Granoin Clk^t of y^e Assembly

Debated in the House whether Monday next will be a convenient time for the Trial of Jacob Young: Resolved, that Monday next will not be time enough for the Members of this House to prepare themselves for managing the Charge against Jacob Young.

Therefore ordered that a Message be drawn by the Clerke of this House and sent to the Upper House to desire that Tuesday (maybe the Day of Joyell, Mr^s Jacob Young) may have notice thereof.

Message was drawn the following Message (1683)

Lower House of Assembly October 6th 1683.

This House conceived that by reason some Members of this House which
