

were appointed the last Sessions to manage the Impeachment of Jacob Young are not present in this House, so that there is no necessity of appointing other Members in their Rooms, who are not as yet sufficiently prepared with the Matter in ^{of} Jays Impeachment, Therefore this House desire, that further time may be given for the Members of this House now appointed to manage the Impeachment aforesaid to prepare themselves for ^{the} same, and that Tuesday next being the ninth of this present October may be the day of Tryall, and that Jacob Young may have notice thereof to answer accordingly.

Signed & ordered,

Tho: Boteler Clk of the Lower House &c.

Capt. Henry Johnson and Capt. Richard Hill appointed in ^{of} name of Messrs. Keble and Mr. Gibson to manage the Impeachment of Jacob Young.

The House adjourned till Monday Morning 7 a Clock.

Monday October the eighth 1683.

The House met and called, all present as one Saturday.

Then was read what was done one Saturday.

Capt. Hill and Capt. Johnson sent to ^{of} Upper House with the message of Saturday last relating to the Tryall of Jacob Young.

They returne and say they have delivered their Message.

A Bill intitled an Act for Advancement of Trade, read the 2^d time.

Mr. Geary Darnall from ^{of} Upper House delivers the following Message.

Upper House October 4th 1683.

This House doe Concur with ^{of} Lower House, and on Tuesday they will bring Jacob Young to tryall, and that Jacob Young shall have notice thereof.

Signed & ordered, Tho: Gaumerin Clk. of Upper House

The Members appointed to manage the Impeachment of Jacob Young goe out to consider and prepare themselves for ^{of} tryall.

Then came Mr. Geary Sewell from the Upper House and desires a list of ^{of} witnesses which this House would have summoned against Jacob Young. Capt. Osborne sent to the Committee for managing the Charge against Jacob Young for a list of the names of the witnesses.

He returnes and says they will send it presently.

The Committee about Jacob Young come into the House and Report as followeth.

Att a Committee about Jacob Young.

This Committee find Garoth Banweingen a very Materiall Evidence in this Matter, who is not here, and desire he may be sent for.

That Joshua Doynes, Thomas few, and John Higdon are ^{of} witnesses and are here; And the Committee conceive it needfull to order their attendance and stay till the tryall is over.

The other living evidences are Members of the Upper and Lower House (To Wit) Coll: Coursey, Coll: Stevens, Coll: Loyd, Richard Hill, and Francis