

Lower House of Assembly October 20th 1683.

This house having read and Considered the Act for Advancement of Trade. His Lordsh: hath nominated these following places for Townes, viz: Upper Creeke als Coxes Creeke. Next to fill up the blank therefore left. Ann Hundell County: South River on Coll: Bugeffes Lands to fill upp: of blank there left, Calvert County, on John Bowlings lands neer Sants land Instead of Gaunts land, Grays Inn Creeke at New Garments for a Towne in Kent County also as to entering and clearing of Shippes in a . . . . in the said bill mentioned. This house doe think the same may be left to his Lordsh: as formerly the same office is of very great concerne not only to his Lordsh: but to the King also, And for not fitt to be intrusted but in very good safe and Capable persons hands, and it may happen that such persons may not be found seated conveniently for that purpose in every County In all things else this house doe well approve of the sayd bill

Signed Orders.

Thomas Greenwin Clerk of Assembly.

The Bill for Directing the Manner of Electing and Summoning Burgesses Delegates &c: with the amendments and alterations therein made was read the third time and assented too by this house.

The sayd bill as alsoe the Bill Touching Leavyn of Warre: were sent to the Upper house by Mr. Thomas Buford, Mr. Robert Caville, Mr. John Rowdly, and Mr. William Hatton.

The Bill for Lessening the Number and bettering the breed of Horses Read the third time, And assented too by this house.

Mr. Clement Hill and Mr. Francis Butchins sent up the with.

They returne and say they have delivered the same.

Then came Coll: Digg and Maj. Truman with the Booke of Lawes and the following Message, from the upper house.

Upper House October 22nd 1683.

This house having once more debated the business of Jacob Young and the Crimes that are layd to his Charge in his Impeachment and of what is proved agt: him, cannot thinke it reasonable or safe to suffer the said Jacob to goe at large, And since he has been impeached by the Lower house, this house think it the best way of proceeding, that some Members of both houses be appointed for a Committee to draw up a Bill agt: him the sayd Jacob preventing him from any future Mischiefe to this Government, and doe . . . . . Case of Edward Husland May appear in A. . . . . the 20th day of October 1678. And since

This house desires the Concurrence

ing for the Safety and Security of the Government of this Province.

Signed Orders

Thomas Greenwin Cl. of Assembly