Henry Darnall Keeper.

Then His Lop. sayd of taking Into his Consideracion of Temporary Lawes of this Province, in the bill of Reviver mentioned, many of which are good and necessary for the good Government of the people of this Province, yet would expire, and become void, if he should now conclude this Session.

And Therefore he sayth he hath thought fitt to continue them in force by Adjourning Both houses Till the first Tuesday in April next, And Giveth Licence to the Lower house to adjourne themselves accordingly.

Whereupon Mr. Speaker and of Members of the Lower house Returne to their owne house.

And after some time of Consideracion there

Adjournes The house Till 4th of the first Tuesday in April next.

C. Boteler Clk. of the Lower house of Assembly
