The House Mett, and Called, all present as yesterday.

Then was read what was done yesterday.

Proposed by a Member of this house, that the Case of Mr. Bartholomew Ennalls a Member of this house for Dorchester County, being absent from this house this whole Meeting, be taken into Consideration.

Whereupon Doctor W. Brooke the other Delegate for the County, In excuse of the said Mr. Ennalls sayth that, a few days before the Meeting of this assembly, some Servants of Mr. Ennalls had Robbed their sayd Master of divers goods to a Considerable Vallue, and had also taken away his Shallop, and run away with the Shallop and goods to Virginia, and that Mr. Ennalls went in pursuit of them, But with resolution to returne time enough to give due attendance upon this house, But since he hath not come he sayth he fears at present, that some extraordinary accident hath happened to him, and hopes he may be excused - Voted that the excuse made by Dr. Brooke in behalf of Mr. Ennalls be not admitted.

And it is thereupon further Voted, That the said Mr. Bartholomew Ennalls be fined Tenn pounds Sterling: unless the said Mr. Ennalls, doe make such Lawfull excuse to the Lower House of the next assembly for his absence this Meeting. As by the said Lower house of assembly shall be admitted and entered upon their Journalls in discharge of the said fine. Coll<sup>d</sup> Dix from the Upper House, acquaints this house, that if this house
