Message to his Ex^{ty} the Governour in Council.

By the House of Burgesses May the 9th 1695.

Whereas the sad Reports of the Death of her Sacred Majesty Queen Mary of blessed Memory fell under the Consideration of this House. It does appear that his Ex^{ty} the Governour and many private persons within this Province have letted expressing and affirming the same for truth (this house therefore to take of all occasion of Scandall which may be cast upon the Service enjoined by the Church of England by the adversaries thereof, have thought fitt that her late Majesty's Name be omitted in publique prayers, and + + + further, it is by this House considered that upon so great a loss we can do no less than with great grief condole the same.
