

not as yet received his Maj^{ty} Royall Comands he did not know how soon after ye arrivall of ye fleet - there might be occasion of their meeting together - therefore prorogued the house untill the first day of July ensuing - at which tyme if there were no occasion of their meeting he would take care to give them tymeely notice.

Thereupon Mr^r Speaker and ye Rest of ye Members returned to ye house where Mr^r Speaker having taken the Chair prorogued themselves untill ye first day of July next ensuing.

So ended this fifth Session of Assembly Thursday the 14th of May Anno Domini 1696. and in ye eighth Year of the Resigne of our Sovereign Lord William ye third. by ye Grace of God of England, France, and Ireland King Defender of ye Faith.

