

and Unadvisedness to breake their Articles with us in Leaving their Established places of abode with drawing themselves so suspiciously in the night tyme, and putting us to so greate Charge to finde them out And notwithstanding that for them to Refuse to Come back and live as formerly they were wont. And therefore if they all Come in, and settle themselves according to their former Articles as is already said, the former Articles shall be Confirmed to them; Or if they do not all agree to Come that the same shall be to those that doe Come in, provided they doe immediately upon their Coming in apply themselves to such persons as shall be appointed, and give in their Names that we may know who are our friends and who not.

And that for all such as will not returne upon the proposals by a day Certain, we doe refuse all Intercourse of trade or Commerce with them, and to that end that Caution should be given them to forbear at their perill to Come or appear within the Bounds of this Province, for that if they do without Coming in as aforesaid they be Certainly deemed as Enemies and treated accordingly.

And to prevent all Mistakes of friends for Enemies.
We doe firmly enjoyn and require all those that doe Come in under the penalty of forfeiting our friendship, not to Harbour, entertaine, or detaine any of those Indians of them Nations that are now absent, or that doe not Come in and give up their Names as aforesaid for that if they doe we shall looke upon them as Confederating with our Enemies.
4th We also propose that a Copie of what terms we make to the Indians maybe laid before His Gov. the Gov. of Virginia, that thereby that Government maybe the Justice of our proceedings with them, and be an inducement to them not to believe or Countenance any of their allegations and Harbour them in their Contempt and breach of Articles with us.

We also propose that it maybe requisite under the present juncture to send a certain Number of Gent. of this Government (not less then ten to the Indians to make knowne to them these our proposals and to treat with them thereon, and also to descend to particulars with them in that treaty and that they have a Latitude of Discretion left with them for as the Government, shall think fitt and convenient particularly about the place of their being if proposed.

6th That according to the first proposals to the Indians.
We conceive that some sober and discreet persons being appointed merely Resident to _____ of the Indian Towns to heare and determine any Complaint either of the Indians or English, with one another.

And the determinations of such persons shall be binding to both parties unless the matter be of so great moment as to require an appeal to the _____
