

his (Matys) Royall prerogative, and his Ex<sup>ty</sup> would have you read and consider well the Case of my Lord Chief Justice Heats who was not admitted to plead at the Barre without the Kings Speiell leave as you may see in my Lord Cooks Reporte And in Lords Regis in Banco Regis. fol. 375. And his Ex<sup>ty</sup> would know by what Law or Charter any of the Attorneys of this Province do plead in his Matys Courts within this Government without the Kings Speiell leave or Licence.

And you often mention your Rights and Liberties the particulars whereof he would like to know too and do advise you to read and consider those enumerated, as the R<sup>ty</sup> Honble the Lords and Commons of England, Anno Prince Gulielm 5th Maria contained in the Act of Parliament now lying before you.

His Ex<sup>ty</sup> hath formerly and now tells you againe he knows of no Custom in this Country that Can An<sup>o</sup> to Common Law, which if you know of any you are required to show it

He does not believe that such an address was asserted to by all the Delegates which if not then it proves not right, but should have been expressed with so many Yeas and so many Nays or by Majority of voices according to the Custom of Parliament.

As for your say<sup>g</sup> att Arms his Ex<sup>ty</sup> knows of no such officers, but takes it to be a high assumption the assuming such title, and as for the leaving your Vote upon your Journall It will among other your proceedings of this Session remaine as a Monument of your despotick Inclination Some of which are you asserting an Ordinance to be in force for publick and County Gentymen to keep Ordinary Licence free.

His Ex<sup>ty</sup> disowning any such Ordinance which was sufficiently argued and explained last Session.

Your Resolves upon Mr. Gyres pet<sup>o</sup> of the 25th Instant by which you seem to Intimate and determine a point in Law Contrary to an Act of Assembly.

Your Sitting when you do Contrary to an Act of Assembly and your Making allowance and your leaving upon the people 2500<sup>l</sup> of Tob<sup>o</sup> for another house to sitt in Contrary likewise to the said Act, your sending Message to the Ch<sup>o</sup> of the Councill for papers without his Ex<sup>ty</sup> or his (Matys) honble Councills knowledge or leave your sending a Summons to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> J<sup>o</sup> Thomas Lawrence Bant<sup>o</sup> his Matys Secy of this Province by patent under the great Seal of England and one of his Matys honble Councill.

It is remarked there are severall uncertainties and incoherencies in your Votes. This Boards have printed all the addresses, Resolves and papers about grievances and do signify the practice of Virginia in that
