

Ordered that Mr. Hicks and Mr. Ferry carry this Message likewise, they returne and say they have delivered their Message.

The Committee appointed to make a List of all such Laws as are in force as also of such Laws as are Repealed brought in the same.

The Hon^{ble} Thomas Brooks Esq^r and Mr. James Husbey Enter the house and present the following Message.

By His Excellency the Gov^r and Councill in Assembly, Nov^r. 12th. 1698.
Gent^l. We have Receiv^d your address and if any Reflections have been made by us we were and are sorry we have had occasion so to doe, but since you have now declared yourselves to be His Majesty's Dutifull and Loyall Subjects and to have due veneration to the Church of England as by Law established we are willing to believe what you profess is Real and hope you will for the future square your actions according thereto without heats or animosities which produce nothing but the ill effects of the Interruption of His Majesty's and of Countreys business.

Signed for order.

W^m Bladen Clk. Councill.

Sir Saturday Nov^r. 12th. 1698.

By the Hon^{ble} His Majesty's Councill in Assembly.

The Message by Mr. Ferry and Mr. Hicks being considered it is returned for answer that as to the Bills proposed to be Reviv'd you have not observed their Lordships the Hon^{ble} the Lords of the Committee of Trade and plantations instructions in their Letter herewith sent you.

As to your Request about the Money a Speedy answer will be given you upon sight of the Committees Journalls how it is appointed.

Signed for order. G. Gregory Clk. House of Sirs.

By His Excellency the Gov^r and Councill in Assembly, Nov^r. 12th. 1698.

His Excellency is pleased to acquaint the house, that he did not mention of Countreys not being put to charge for a Councill Chamber out of any designe to have anything paid him therefore.

Signed for order.

W^m Bladen Clk. Councill.

By the House of Delegates Nov^r. 12th. 1698.

Upon reading your Excellency's Message by the Hon^{ble} Thomas Brooke and James Husbey Esq^r we have had Recourse to your Excellency's Letter from the Hon^{ble} the Lords of the Committee for Trade and plantations, and humbly desire that your Excellency would be pleased to satisfy this house whether your Excellency's Reference us to the said Sirs in respect to the three bills we desire to be Reenacted or to the Reviving Bill.

Signed for order - G. Gregory Clk. House of Delegates
