with an answer to his Ex<sup>ty</sup> Speech relating to y<sup>e</sup> Affaires of New Yorke which is as followeth.

May it please Your Ex<sup>ty</sup>.

His May<sup>ty</sup> Spee<sup>ch</sup> of the 19th of January 170<sup>2</sup> and your Ex<sup>ty</sup> Speech on that Subject touching a supply of Money to New Yorke has been seriously debated and considered and our Loyalty and Duty to his Mat<sup>ty</sup> having carried us on this all other difficultys and obstructions we have resolved on a supply of Money to y<sup>e</sup> utmost degree of what we have or can by any ways or means attain to which with trouble of minde we are forced to acknowledge will not amount to above three hundred pounds which altho' it be not the whole summe mentioned yett it is all we have or can gett and by which we are constrained to leave some just debt of the publick unpaid and our selves in a weak state of defence agst our Common Enemy the Indians who are daily annoying our frontiers.

And because we have great reason to believe that our Neighbours of New Yorke has not used us fairly in their Representing our Condition to his most Sacred Majesty otherwise y<sup>e</sup> what it really is and are well
