

Lead in the House the other copy of the warrant or receipt accepted of.

Mr. Jos. Hill & Mr. James Haysbrooke will send the money in cash.

Should Mr. James Haysbrooke at eight a clock in the afternoon and in the afternoon of the 11th Capt. Rich. Your remembrance

The House of Commons
in the House of Commons also the House of Commons

The House of Commons

very well pleased to see speech to them.

Mr. Speaker and you put a Dole our shooting now is by her Majesty's special command I do doubt not but the great good things for earnestly recommended to your serious consideration for the good welfare of this Province will be unanimously approved of and abouted to by you its representatives that what her Sacred Majesty has so wisely and graciously concerted for your future happiness and grandeur may enrich you and succeeding generations.

God's Honour that ever swayed the English scepter has had a more tender regard for all her subjects than her present Majesty and tho' she has been engaged in a great chargeable war over seas her attention to the affairs her princely generous endeavours have not been confined to Brittain alone. But an unwearyed kindness is diffused over all her Majesty's Colonies of plantations abroad and more especially to our neighbouring plantations witness her Majesty's tender interposition wth the Bar of Murray for if that grant or project had not been stop't you might in good measure bid adieu to the Gods Trade in America whilst the divided interest and contentions of Merchants at home in relation to the foreign trade through the Circassian Trade had speedily cross'd our Trade.

Next her Majesty's Trade wth Spain which has already for ever got through many Spanish Spoils and commodities thither wth among them wth our