[illegible] on [illegible] serious Retrospection [illegible] Revised and best now more [illegible] his Amend ing others Lately made in [illegible] for good ones by this House but are [illegible] ecta, Particular ly that of Erecting Forts and [illegible] seems not to be sufficiently coersive in some of the most Materiall branches An other to outlaw Richard Clarke whose Crimes are so notor ously Agravated that cry a loud for Justice and therefore ca not of your Ready Concurrence in an Effectuall Cause for the future Ease and Quiet of her Majestys good Subjects; for the Rectifying and Amending the others which it is in your Power which will sufficiently Satisfy your good Honest intentions to after Ages — Gent.

I am very glad to give you a Remarkable first Instance of her Gracious Majestys Good inclinations towards us of this Province in a late Instruction Received to Appoint four Itinerant Judges: that every man without the fatigue and charge of coming hither may have Justice done him in his own proper County; this Gent. will be a true incouragment to propagate good learning and literature in the Country, that your posterity may qualifie themselves to perform the Dutys of the Highest Stations. for all present that seems to be Absolutly necessary since her Maty you Judges Born within your own bounds which is really soe inducing a Consideration, you will I hope (like good Subjects) ever gratefully Acknowledge;

Her Maj[es]ty's Honble Council have with me truely considered of the most proper methods to render this her Majestys Roya.
Indulgent Care of us most Effectually good to the Publick and transmitt you a Scheme drawn up by his best Advice to procure, which I doubt not will incourage your ready Assist. in a matter of such moment to all; if any difficulty should ar.. how those Judges should be Supported: I would never have forgott by whose Authority you Sitt, and on all occasions to our Royall Soveraigns Just Comands are to trifled with or neglected: therefore I