

Shoy Returns and say they saw her prove the Accounts Call Whittingtons Petition was read and having Baus to speak to it he came into the House and Mr Speaker having heard what he had to say and so withdrew.

And the matter in the Petition contained being debated in the House, It's putt to the Question whether Negro Slaves pay Fees or Noe.

Carryed in the Affirmative that Fees are due from them and ought to be payd

And putt againe to the Question whether the County or the publick pay such Fees.

Carryed by the Majority that the County where the Fact has or shall be Comitted pay Fees.

Recomended to the Committee of Law that they Inspect the Act Against Blasphemy and Order a Bill be brought in Ascertaining how their Fees be payd and insert a Clause how Jurors and Evidences for their Attendance be payd

Call Greenberry and Call Whittington from the Honble Council Enter the House and deliver Mr. Speaker the following Message
By the Council in a Assembly Novemb. 3. 1709

Gentl. Wee hold it necessary upon our present Meeting the Some months after her Majestys Royall Comands Received to acquaint you her Majesty has been pleased to declare her disafent to the Act Impowering the Farmers of the Lord Baltomors Rents to Recover the Arrears thereof after the expiration of their lease, And you are to take the said Law is Accordingly repealed.

Signed for order W. Cadogan

And likewise was brought into the House Mr. Atty Report to the Lords of Trade and Plantations upon the giving power to the Farmers to recover the arrears upon the Act Requiring the Lord Baltomors Arrears to be paid into the Secretarys Office their Instructions to the Lords of Plantations by which being read Ordered to be returned.

Resolved the Committee of Law to Blasphemy Fornication and Fees, shall be payd and likewise how payd for their Attendance and report