

W. Speaker their Report which was Order'd to be Read and Entred as follows viz.
Maryland &c.

At a Conference held at the House of W. Lubman
Lord in the City of Annapolis this 3. Novemb. 1709
Present

| | |
|---------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| Of her Majesty's Honble Council | Of the House of Delegates |
| Col Wm Holland | Col Tho: Smithson |
| Col Wm Courfey | Col Nich: Lowe |
| Col Tho: Ennalls | May: Geo: Gab: Col Walter Smith |
| John Hall Esq. | W. Rob: Ungw. W. Tho: Bordley |
| | W. John Salter W. Sam: Worthington |

Appointed to Inquire into some Aggriovances and the way to Redress them &c.

1. As to that part which relates to the Custody of the Great Seals being the Hands of the Gov. It is the Opinion of all the Conferees that is an Aggriovance, and that the way to Redress it is by the Council and Assembly Joyning in an Address to her Majesty as proposed.
2. As to the Second relating to one person being a Justice in the prov. and County Courts at one and the same time The Conferees agree it is an Aggriovance and the Honble Members of her Majesty's Council acquaint the Gent. of the House of Delegates that it is already Redress'd 3. As to what relates to one person holding severall Offices, It is the Opinion of the Conferees that if any person hold the Chancellors Office, the Comptrollers Office, Secrys Office, Sheriffs Office a Clarke of the County Courts Office together with any other Office or place of profit it is an Aggriovance and that the House of Delegates Address the Council Board to redress it as far as in them lyes 4. As to the fourth which relates to the County Courts Comissio-ners, the Conferees Agree that they having to separate Comissions is an Aggriovance and that it may be redress'd by having one Comission for all as formerly. and that the Number of Justices exceed not Eight in any County.
5. As to the fifth which relates to the Sheriffs and others buying of Offices the Conferees Agree it is a great Aggriovance, and it is the Opinion of the Conferees that for the future the Justices of County Courts in March Court before the Sheriffs